

EVALUATION CHECKLIST

Question	Yes	No	Comments
Does the water appear to be sufficiently available according to the guidelines on page 15?
Is water being provided at or above the minimum acceptable quantity shown in the table on page 15?
Does the water appear to be of sufficient minimum quality and cleanliness according to the guidelines on page 15?
Does the horse have a minimum body score of 3 out of 9 on the Henneke Scale as described on page 20? Using the worksheet on page 62 to evaluate each horse, list the actual body score in the Comments column.
Is the horse being fed at a sufficient minimum daily frequency according to the guidelines on page 19?
Is the horse receiving a minimum quantity of food on a daily basis (based on its estimated body weight)? Guidelines on page 23.
Does the feed source meet the minimum quality standard and is it free of contaminants such as dust, mold toxins and weeds?
Is minimum shelter provided for the given circumstances as described on pages 27 and 28? If not, describe under Comments.
If the horse lives in a stall, do the stall dimensions meet the minimum standards described in the table on page 28?
Is the environment sufficiently clean and free of excess fecal and urine accumulation? If not, describe in the Comments column.
Does ventilation meet a minimum standard as described on pages 28-29? If not, provide in the Comments column an estimation of ammonia concentration based on the table on page 29.

Question	Yes	No	Comments
Is the environment free of hazards as described on page 29? If not, describe under Comments.
If the horse is confined to a stall or small area, is it being provided minimum exercise time as described on page 28?
Does the horse have a medical condition or injuries that require veterinary attention as described on page 34? If yes, describe under Comments.
Does the horse receive regular minimum hoof trimming and care as described on page 34?
Does the horse receive minimum veterinary care as described on page 34? If not, describe in the Comments column.
In cases of transportation, is the horse being transported according to the legal guidelines set forth on page 39? If not, describe under Comments.
Have any California laws been violated as listed in Appendix 1 on pages 48-58? If yes, describe under Comments.
Have any Federal laws been violated as listed in Appendix 2 on page 60? If yes, describe under Comments.
Have any local ordinances been violated? If yes, describe under Comments.
Has each horse on the property been evaluated according to the worksheet on page 62? If yes, describe under Comments.
ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS/COMMENTS:			